Restaurants You Could Consider for Your Small Group Dinner on Tuesday

Close to Where You're Staying

(as in, near CollegeTown)

Gaines Street Pies

Gaines Street Pies was created by two local guys who wanted to create the best pizza in Tallahassee (they succeeded). We started by using fresh ingredients. We got rid of the freezer and microwave and made homemade meatballs, real sliced bacon, fresh made ranch and followed this model for every ingredient on our menu.

(as in, you'll want to take an Uber)

Kool Beanz Café

A Tallahassee favorite for contemporary American gourmet food with a constantly changing menu, light eaters should consider sharing. "In a vibrant setting of dark pastels and modern art the friendly and energetic staff serve such tantalizing entrees as: Cuban-Spiced Pork Chops with mango habanero salsa; Linguini, tasso ham, mushrooms, crawfish, roasted garlic cream sauce; Tuscan style lamb; and Sake-teriyaki glazed salmon with sesame roasted asparagus, sambal chutney and wasabi mashed potatoes."

Midtown Caboose

Unique sandwiches and burgers done right. Nice outside patio area that is enclosed when it gets cold. "So often chain restaurants offer the same old boring choices. At the Midtown Caboose we welcome you to shatter that paradigm. We are the Wells Brothers." They said "paradigm" on their website, we had to quote that.

Decent Pizza

Much better than decent (though very inexpensive) slices of pizza that are roughly the size of your head - cheap drinks. "Ready for a shop that actually focuses on the pie? Our menu couldn't be more simple-- pizza, calzones, dessert, salads, with a few sides for measure."

Masa

Asian fusion, small cold sake selection. "The Asian-fusion menu offers a creative, modern blend of Eastern and Western cuisines. A dinner favorite is the Chilean sea bass. In its casually elegant space, the restaurant's sushi bar also is popular."

Level 8

One of our favorite places in Tallahassee. Located on the eighth floor of Hotel Duval with a huge balcony overlooking our beautiful city. Drinks are not expensive, and there is great finger food available until 10pm (charcuterie, cheese boards, etc.). While the dress code only says no tank tops, patrons are usually dressed business-casual +.

Liberty

Small plates available, on the weekends there is usually live music (and therefore a cover). Usually pretty busy on the weekends, definitely a grad student favorite.

Wine Loft

Wine bar franchise out of Baton Rouge with a great selection of wine and beer, full bar, and good small plates as well.

Whataburger

While the above restaurants are some of the best that Tallahassee has to offer, sometimes you just need a Honey Butter Chicken Biscuit - "One juicy, breaded chicken strip on a buttermilk biscuit. It's covered with our special Honey Butter sauce, which some folks call 'liquid gold.'"
